THE TIMES.
A. H. CLEMENT Editor
WEDNESDAY MARCH 13, 1907.

The American girls who went abroad duke hunting have come back well picked.

Now that spring has come again drink a little sassafras for the stomach's sake and thine oft infirmities.

The average depot agent is averse to answering questions. To avoid the necessity let the bulletin boards tell the truth and nothing but the truth.

Cortelyou outside the treasury was a potent factor financially in the interest of the G. O. P., and who can tell what he will not be able to accomplish with the National purse strings in his own hands?

Thirty six thousand negroes voted in the recent Philadelphia election and the old and disreputable gang was restored to power. The "problem" is moving North. Not many years before the colored vote of Philadelphia will be as harmless as is the colored vote of Petersburg.

Thos. Nelson Page has'nt much hope of peaceful and pleasant relations between the whites and blacks of the South when the 'real slaves' have all died out of the ranks of the living. The one link, in his opinion, will then have been broken and not a bond of sympathy will remain.

Harriman, Foraker and Spooner cook dinner with Chauncy Depew one night and the sharpest of newspaper reporters are yet guessing as to the plans discussed or projects proposed. No more of political craft and cunning ever met around a table supplied with four plates.

It is a little remarkable that Speaker Cannon during the session should be denounced by the Democrats as "Czar," "tyrant" and "despot," and in the closing moments of the session be eulogized as a pink of perfection as presiding officer It looks to the average reader as brazen hypocrisy or downright lying.

Senator Spooner's resignation has been explained. He has joined the Harriman band and will make more money in one year than he could in ten in the Senate. He might have served his master better as Senator but he is'nt much of that stuff. He would'nt undertake to serve country and Christ at the same time.

The free school work in Virginia will be elaborately represented at Jamestown. Busy teachers are now at work making the many preparations and this means that the work will be well done. The outside world will be as much surprised at the advances that Virginia has been making along this line as well as on others. The fact is the old mother has been wide awake from the day the ashes of war had been shaken off, instead of vain lament's she has been engaged in honest labor.

We read recently of three boys grown to manhood, who referred to their old home in this way, mother's home, for the father had died when they were of tender years, "mother always kept us nicely clothed, taught us self-respect, and made us work in school and out and gave us a pleasant home with good literature and music." Is it any wonder that those genius men look back with pleasure upon a home like that? Cleanliness, courtesy, work, literature and music. Home is better training ground than the Sunday School. Parents have more to do with forming characters than do the preachers.

Judge Harrison, who presided at the Strother trial, in thanking the jury for their verdict of acquittal has given judicial construction to the "unwritten law" in Virginia. He said law books may lay down correct doctrines, but American juries will not punish a man who kills another, if this other by aggravating treachery invades the sanctity of his home circle and destroys its peace. No need for prolonged and costly trials again in such cases. Let the fact of invasion be established and the defendants go acquitted. It is said that the Strother brothers spent $10,000 in lawyers fees, and Judge Harrison being correct, it was money wasted.

Mrs. Judith A. Howerton, widow of the late T. J. Howerton, died yesterday at the home of her son, Mr. O. H. Howerton, 2609 High street. Deceased was 70 years of age, and was a member of the Methodist church. She is survived by two sons, Mr. O. M. Howerton, of this city, and Mr. T. W. Howerton, of Richmond, also by one daughter, Mrs. H. F. B. Martin, of Lovingston. The remains will be buried today at Salem church, near Spout Spring, Appomattox county—Lynchburg News.

The base ball season in Appomattox will open on Saturday, March 23rd, with Bellevue High School, practice beginning at 1 p. m. and game called at 2 p. m. sharp. It is the desire of the management to make this a noted occasion, and to that end they have decided to have the game early so that friends in the country can come early and do their shopping after the game, returning home before dark. Come out and help the boys along and at the same time enjoy yourselves for two hours or so. The work on the athletic field is now completed and the grand stand and seats are being built. Captain Taylor has gotten a good team together and he has our best wishes for a successful season.

Togo.

Baptist Brethern Hold Services at Evergreen.

Public recognition services of Evergreen Baptist church will, providence permitting, be held next Sunday, March 17th, at the Presbyterian church in Evergreen. Church conference to meet at two o'clock p. m., at which it is requested that every member, male or female, who is not providentially prevented, will attend, as well as any others who might join the church. At three o'clock Rev. George Kenoard, pastor of Liberty church, will preach and charge the church and acting pastor, and Rev D. S. Hubbell, of Red House, will charge the deacons. Mr. Hubbell will also preach at night. There will be no morning services. A cordial welcome to all.

Card of Thanks.

Please allow me through the columns of your paper to express our high appreciation and gratitude for the liberal "pounding" which the generous hearted people of Appomattox gave us on last Thursday. Such tokens of love and esteem will always be an endeavor to render them a more efficient service than ever before. May God's richest blessing rest upon each and may all of them be rewarded a thousand-fold.
Sincerely,
W. L. MURPHY.

OBITUARY.

On February 18th the death angel visited the home of Mr. I. A. Thornhill and claimed his beloved wife. She had been an invalid for the past seven years, yet she was never known to murmur, but bore her sufferings cheerfully and patiently. Her life of consecration and devotion to God was the most potent illustration of a life which was "hid with Christ in God."

She was a daughter of Mrs. M. F. Jenkins and sister of Messrs. J. W. and A. C. Jenkins, of Appomattox and O. C. Jenkins, of Bluefield, W. Va.; and Mesdames A. S. Swan, T. F. Covington and W. I. Cawthorn, all of Appomattox.

These loved ones and also her husband and children were with her during her last hours and lovingly administered to her calls and wishes with untiring zeal.

May they bow in humble submission to His Divine Will and feel that their loss is her eternal gain.

Her body was laid to rest in the old family burying ground in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Allison.

A LOVING FRIEND.

Price $2,000.
No. 302. Lies in Nelson county, 13 miles from Rockfish station. 106 acres, 60 in timber, white oak, poplar, chestnut, and locust. Framed dwelling of six rooms, two stories in height, shingle roof. 300 fruit trees on the place, 200 Albemarle pippins in bearing, 100 winesaps five years old. Land produces corn, tobacco and wheat of good quality.
No. 237. 253 Acres. TIMBER $8 per acre.
This is a good tract of land, well located, about 7 miles from station; the timber is very good and is estimated to have on it 10,000 ties, 500,000 feet white oak, besides hickory and other timber.
No. 501. 900 Acres Timber Price, $10,000.
This tract lies from 8 to 10 miles from railroad on good county road to station; it is estimated that the timber will run about as follows: 500,000 feet oak; 1,000 900 cross ties; 2,000 acres of this land is not to timber has been free from fire in 15 years and is a fine colony proposition, as the timber is on the place to build houses.
MINERAL LANDS.
I have for sale some of the best SLATE property in the world. Also large tracts of land carrying IRON ORE, SOAPSTONE, ASBESTOS, etc.
No. 196. HOTEL $5,500.
There could be no sweeter home anywhere than this property offers. It is situated on Main street in the heart of one of the best towns in the State. Water, bath, stoves, depot, telephone and telegraph in the business. The house is 2½ story, brick, in perfect repair and constructed of the best material. It contains eleven large rooms. The beautiful lawn in front and rear of residence is dotted with fine shade trees and in perfect shape. There are necessary outhouses, fine garden, fruit, &c. About 3 acres. A good hotel property or a handsome residence. The town is one of the oldest in the State and affords the best society. Photos at this office.
No. 28. 30,000 Acres Timber in Virginia.
This tract of land lies in the Blue Grass section of Va., and would make a fine fruit or stock farm after the timber has been developed. Over 10,000 acres have been cleared. The tract contains 100,000,000 feet of saw timber—hardwood, white pine, poplar, hemlock and spruce pine. Also 80,000 cords of poplar and pine suitable for manufacturing into pulp. Railroad crosses property and station on same. Price $11 per acre; easy terms can be arranged if good security is given.
No. 34. 38,000 Acres Timber in North Carolina
This is probably the best timber proposition on the market in the South. Lies on Southern and near Seaboard Rys. 26,000 acres original growth timber, estimated to cut 50 per cent, 25,000 pine, remaining growth 50 per cent. white oak of fine quality. Some of the tract stands in yellow poplar, white pine and chestnut oak 2,500 acres of the tract is cleared land, 1,000 acres stands in thick timber—will cut 5,000 cords to acre. The price is low and very reasonable, only a few thousand feet, which carries the fee simple title to the 26,000 acre tract and timber right to the 38,000 tract, estimating the stumpage at 10,000,000 feet, can be paid for as developed. Good for 10 years cutting. Lowest estimator says $1,000,000 profit to the developers of this magnificent tract.
No. 185. FACTORY. $7,000.
This is one of the best constructed brick factories in this section of the country. Has 4 stories and very large cavern. There is also a small corn-mill and one or two out buildings on the place; fine new dam 16 feet high and on a never-failing stream of water; one mile to station. The machinery in the factory is not included, all necessary out-buildings. The land is rich. Level road to station. 3,000 acres of good land and many commercial residences and out buildings adjoining on the property. Plenty of water and fine hardwood timber. This is a rare opportunity for colonies. Fine grazing land, factory and residences, forming acids, timber lands all in one tract conveniently located; good fishing and hunting. Write for easy terms and particulars and photos.
No. 245. 400 Acres. $6,000
This is a very pretty old plantation, over looking the famous James River Valley for miles, about seven miles from Lynchburg and Madison Heights on the road. 60 acres fine low grounds, 20 acres in fruit, 100 acres fine hardwood timber; orchard; fine fishing and hunting; boating, &c.; only a few minutes to station; 300 acres under cultivation and pasturage; well watered and fairly fenced; 8 room residence, in good repair; also residence in town containing 6 rooms; large slate-roof barn, containing 16 stalls; 3 other houses on the place.
Parties interested in an old Virginia plantation, should not fail to investigate this. Reason for selling, other business. Will be interested it would be useless to begin negotiations.
